

AFAR

14 Sweet Valentine's Day Deals—That You Can Still Book

By Chelsea Bengier 2.7.2018

Last-minute lovers rejoice: It's not too late to give that special someone a February 14th worth remembering.

Valentine's Day is just around the corner—and if you haven't planned your big date yet, there are still plenty of incredible travel packages available for a last-minute romantic getaway. From a diamond-infused spa treatment in Japan to a private yacht cruise in the Caribbean, these dreamy deals are sure to show the love.

Note: Availability and pricing were accurate at the time of publishing.

The Darcy, Washington, D.C.

Just steps from Dupont Circle, The Darcy is the best for a city staycation in Washington, D.C. This Valentine's Day, guests can book the "Quintessential Darcy" package and stay in the sprawling 900-square-foot Presidential Suite, where they'll get in-room caviar and cocktail service, two Belvedere Intense vodka shots and foie gras with Royal Shassetra caviar, plus a cocktail butler who can make signature drinks right in the suite. The deal also includes a private appointment with Read Wall, a local custom clothier, or a custom-designed bouquet of flowers from UrbanStems. Rates start at $1,700.