The Darcy Hotel Hosts a Pop-Up Flower Bar

This month, the design-forward Darcy Hotel, which opened its doors in April near Washington, D.C.'s Dupont Circle neighborhood, is hosting a pop-up flower bar on its ground-floor outdoor terrace. From 11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. on July 16 and 30, hotel guests and visitors alike can build their own bouquet or choose a pre-arranged assortment to take home. (All proceeds from the event will go to Safe Shores, a local children's advocacy non-profit.) Afterwards, pop over to jazz brunch at the hotel's seafood-focused restaurant, Siren, helmed by D.C. chef Robert Wiedmaier. thedarcyhotel.com. —Avery Stone
